- i) The course fee is seen to be good value for money and therefore is non-refundable in the event of non-attendance, but prospective participants may send someone else in their place. AKSAA Ltd requires prior notice, wherever possible, of the change in delegate attendance.
- ii) Should a booking be cancelled within 2 weeks of the course date, a standard cancellation fee of £50.00 per delegate will be charged.
- iii) Cancellations, non-attendance or notice of non-attendance received on the actual date of the course will carry the full cost of the course.
- iv) AKSAA Ltd reserves the right to cancel a course. Every effort is made to ensure that this does not occur, however, in the event that it does, participants will be offered a place at the next nearest venue or on a later re-scheduled date. No cancellation fee will apply should the alternative date not be accepted, and any payments made will be fully reimbursed. If the alternative date is accepted, original cancellation rules will be re-instated.
